PREFACE

It is our pleasure to submit the self-study report (SSR) of our college to the National Assessment & Accreditation council (NAAC), Bangalore for Re- assessment, an opportunity for us to improve after the second accreditation of the college in 2013. During the second accreditation of our college, we were not able to exhibit our selfs in the diversified activities to address the various quality related issues. We have implemented multi-dimensional activities to enhance and enrich our academic practices. The College complied with almost every recommendation made by the Peer Team at the time of accreditation in 2013 in a planned manner. Our College always aspires to aim high, scaling great heights in its quest for excellence in imparting human, intellectual, spiritual and moral formation to the students. We are trying sincerely to reach the world of excellence by improvising our innate qualities, adopting innovative ideas, acquiring new skills, implementing new techniques and better understanding of our strength and weaknesses. This report is the synergic outcome of all the organs of our institution. It is rather difficult to quote the contribution of each and every organ of the college. We appreciate the efforts put in by the members of the staff for this collaborative and collective venture with an open heart. We hope and believe that the NAAC will also appraise and justify our sincere endeavour.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Rathinam Group

Situated in Coimbatore city is one of the primary highlights of our Rathinam Institutions. Rathinam is more than just a college. It has a new idea in education that takes the concept to a higher stratum. It's an experience that no other educational institution in this category can offer. It's about life in all its dimensions – Learning, Working and Living. That is Rathinam with a difference. What the college offers has an impact on all aspects of life, to which learning is just one aspect. The college preempts what education in the future would be because any learning environment that exists in isolation, divorced from the reality of the world outside the campus is bound to be progressive in every respect.

The college is set in a sprawling 52.62 acre campus that is a part of the Rathinam Techzone housing and IT Park and a Special Economic Zone is located on NH-209 within Coimbatore Corporation limits. So the advantages that it offers are indeed enormous with Project and in-house training at the IT Park and SEZ within the campus. Access to professionals, real time experience and better institutional industry interaction is facilitated by the proximity of the SEZ during up-coming years. It's a new idea in education that takes the concept of education to a higher stratum. It's an experience that no other educational institution in the category can offer. It's all about life in its various dimensions – Learning, Working and Living.

PATRON AND ADVENT OF THE COLLEGE

The inception of Rathinam College of Arts & Science, in 2001 under the aegis of K.P.M Educational Trust, Coimbatore – 641021, a duly registered agency, was possible only because of the eminent and dynamic industrialist and philanthropist, Dr.Madan A Sendhil B.E., MS., Ph.D. Identifying illiteracy as the major cause of all social evils and education as one of the prime needs for our nation's development and prosperity, he established this college, which has secured a firm ground and carved itself a niche in the educational map of the Coimbatore district. The total commitment for the cause of higher education and his dynamic involvement in planning, development, welfare of one and all and, day to day administration of the college helped for its phenomenal growth and its meteoric rise.

A PATH IN CONTINUOUS GROWTH AND CONTRIBUTION

The policy of the K.P.M Educational Trust is to expand the educational service in the fields relevant to meet the needs and to realize the aspiration of the underprivileged youths of the region and in the process to supply a well-equipped and enlightened work force to the nation and to the world. Apart from imparting quality education at an affordable cost, the College continuously strives to mould the personality of the students through various co-curricular and extracurricular activities. It takes efforts to conform to the quality it has aimed and continues to maintain quality in its performance as expected by the stakeholders. All these have resulted in the ever-growing popularity of the college among the parents and their wards when going for need-based higher education with assured standards of quality. The college is affiliated to Bharathiar University right from its inception and is approved by AICTE for running the MBA Program. The college has been recognized by the UGC with 2(f) and 12(B) status of the UGC Act 1956. The NAAC has accredited the college at B Grade with CGPA of 2.51. The Institute has been granted 'Autonomous' Status by UGC with effect from the academic year 2013-2014.

The green circle in our logo represents—Knowledge Park the blue indicates—Technology Park and the yellow indicates—Living & Entertainment. The entire campus is Rathinam Techzone.

A student entering to Pre-KG in our campus can complete his/her higher studies (Arts & Science / Engineering / Management) and obtain very good employment opportunities in our campus IT Park. The entire life can be celebrated in our campus itself. Hence our logo; “Celebrate life”. This is the strategy that the management follows and this concept of education has taken the institution to a higher level.

The institution is one of the pioneers in the field of industry attached institution in Coimbatore and has continuously strived to produce outstanding leaders in the field of Commerce, Management, IT, Media Studies and Creative Sciences. Its endeavour is to create a world class learning environment for all sections of student community, motivate students for competitive exams and other value added programmes for their holistic development and bring out their inherent talents with vigorous theory and practical sessions. True to the mission, the institution provides scholarship to meritorious and economically poor students. Since majority of the students are coming from rural areas, the institution provides free transport facility. The institution reflects a concern not merely with literacy but education in the complete sense of the term. The institution has committed itself to develop a value and need based quality education provider in India and the state of Tamil Nadu in particular. Its ultimate goal is to produce qualified and competent manpower responsive to the changing needs of the society at the national and international levels. It seeks to stimulate and promote activities to strengthen professional competency among the students and the faculty through

Our mission is to make our college a shrine in the temple of higher education. We cherish a dream to open up new avenues, to help our students to be disciplined, self-confident and self-reliant. Our special focus is on cultivating scientific spirit among our students, to mobilize them towards national duties through social service, corporate

We strive with never-satiable spirit of Ulysses for avenues not yet explored and domains of wisdom still untouched.

The institution has ensured the continuation of its long tradition in educating young graduates hailing from the rural background with skills required / demanded by the industry and society.

Efforts have continuously been made to interact with industries to bridge the gap between the syllabus and the need of the industries. The Institute also invites experts from leading R & D organizations and Industries, and involves them for academic guidance. Our College takes every opportunity to make the best use of 'autonomy' to implement innovation in curriculum design.

These goals are reflected in the way of the Choice Based Credit System and academic and Non-Academic mandatory requirements, in the contents of the programmes, in the support structure offered to students and in many opportunities for growth that the College initiates on campus. We offer elective subjects for the UG and PG students in the final years. Feedback is obtained from students, alumni, parents and industry about the curriculum and their suggestions are incorporated in to the syllabus.

The institution's educational plans and actions are mission oriented and value based. They have social face and intellectual dimensions. They can infuse not only morality but also responsibilities in the students.

1.1.2 Describe the mechanism used in the design and development of the curriculum? Give details on the process. (Need Assessment, Feedback, etc)

The first step taken in curriculum formation is a workshop, which is a brainstorming session for the internal faculty members where in Faculty members of each department prepare an outline of all the courses they propose to offer through the undergraduate/post graduate programme, keeping in mind the goals of relevance and global needs fulfillment.

This was followed by the formation of the Boards of Studies in each Department, including external subject experts, industrial representatives and prominent alumnae who are in constant touch with the developments in the field that ensures the relevance of the subject matter and the present needs in the field.

The members of staff analyze the curriculum of different IITs, NITs, Universities and autonomous colleges and also discuss with senior faculty members of these Institutions before framing the curriculum. Also, consultation with various industries and their suggestions are considered for framing the curriculum by the members of the academic advisory committee of each department. The academic advisory committee is comprising of faculties of Anna University, NGOs and Industrilists. In designing the curriculum care is taken that it addresses the present needs of industries at the regional, national and international levels. Students' feedback on curriculum and their suggestions are taken into consideration while restructuring the syllabus. New subjects are included in the syllabus from the industries which the college signed an MoUs such as UTL Technologies, TCS, EMC, Infosys and Electronics subsector council of India.

The revised syllabus is then put forward before the board of studies for approval. Once it is approved by the board of studies, it is placed in the academic council for final approval. The academic council invites experts from various fields and reviews the curriculum aspects so that it suits the needs according to the requirements of the service sector.

The college meticulously plans and develops action plans for effective implementation of the curriculum which is in line with the institution's goal to provide quality education. Teachers prepare schedule of work for each subject semester/ term wise. The curriculum delivery is effectively done through lectures, supported by power point presentations, and e-content development. Printed study material is also provided to students. This is supplemented by Group Discussions, Seminars and Interactive sessions.

E-learning facility (INFLIBNET) service is made available for both the faculty and students to further ensure effective delivery of curriculum. Each department prepares the calendar of activities like extension lectures, Power Point presentations, Group Discussions etc. for the term/semester to achieve the desired outcomes. The quality of the education imparted to students is monitored and ensured through Internal Quality Assurance Cell. Regular feedback obtained from the stakeholders, with respect to the quality of the enrichment programmes that are monitored, evaluated by the IQAC and necessary remedial measures are incorporated in the future. IQAC constantly monitors the all-round academic development of the institution.

1.1.3 How does the College involve industry, research bodies, and civil society in the curriculum design and development process? How did the College benefit through the involvement of the stakeholders?

In pursuit of our journey towards excellence we are able to associate with different educational institutes, industries, and National and International organizations. These associations resulted in acquisition of information and use of contemporary practical aspects of the subject matter which helps the faculty in smooth operationalization of the curriculum.

The College involves members of industry, research bodies, and civil society in the following ways:

- Seminars / workshops / Competitions are organized in collaboration with industry.
- The members of industry, academic institutions, invited for the exhibitions which showcase the work of the students
- The composition of the statutory bodies inherently has a representation of industrial members.
- Various departments liaison with the industry during the field work, internship and placements.
- Collaboration with TCS resulting in imparting Leadership and soft skills training
- Collaboration with INFOSYS to train the trainer programme

- Collaboration with UTL technologies and ESSCI to impart training to students
- Collaboration with SIRC ICAI, Reliance, EMC<sup>2</sup>, ICTACT, CII, ICCI, STPI, CMA, India trust and Rathinavani CRS.

Informal interaction of faculty members with academicians, researchers on current developments in different subjects during seminars, workshops, science, art and craft exhibition, cultural performances, sports and games helps in the design and development of the curriculum. Surveys and field visits are also organized in collaboration with research bodies such as ICSSR. Our students interact with members of different civil societies during various on-campus events. It enhances their quality of inquiry. These also provide them scope to assess their own capabilities and do the needful to enhance it. They realize the academic standard of the world and fix their mission accordingly.

The institution solicits the feedback of academicians from premier institutions. In addition to this exercise, interface between the Institution and Industry as well as with the service sectors are organized. The observations and suggestions of the experts from these fields are incorporated in the curriculum design. This approach is adopted to ensure that the syllabus and curriculum are in sync with current and emerging trends.

1.1.4 How are the following aspects ensured through curriculum design and development?

* Employability

Employability is a major concern in the design and development of the curriculum. Due to academic autonomy, it is possible to regularly update the syllabus to suit the changing demands of the industry and the job market. In each course, the syllabus is modified in the existing subjects and new subjects are introduced in tune with the changing industry and social needs. The Institute has taken special efforts during the last two years after attaining the autonomy to restructure the courses to make them more specialized, relevant to job and industry oriented. The curriculum is designed that ensures the simultaneous development of technical skills and soft skills of the students. The curriculum also incorporates the corporate requirements to produce industry ready professionals. The college is committed in designing the curriculum to bring in industrial relevant subjects to increase the opportunities for employability. With this in view, soft skills, internship, non major Elective and Inter-department Elective, project as well as experimental based learning are incorporated into the curriculum as measures to enhance the competence of the students and render them employable. Internship helps the students to enhance their skills and this in turn increases their employability. Special efforts are taken to structure the programmes to make them more specialized, relevant and job oriented. The curriculum emphasizes application/practical orientation in addition to soft skill development and communication skills. In view of employability, the design and development process ensures need based curriculum. Internships in industries, use of laboratories and libraries for better exposure and experience are mandatory. Attention is also paid to introducing entrepreneurship to the students, through an Entrepreneurship Cell, through the syllabi and through other activities in collaboration with other institutions.

* Innovation

Global strategies have been introduced in the curricula to keep track of the global trends so that the students can develop global competencies. Subjects of contemporary needs and ideas are taken into consideration. The college is continuously encouraging the students for their innovative ideas. Projects are incorporated in the curriculum as well as professional and industrial training, so that the students experience the outside world and prepare themselves accordingly. To enhance the innovative skills/ideas of our students, the present curriculum is designed by providing an equal importance to fundamental, analytical, empirical and industrial application oriented subjects and activities. Innovative topics are given as an assignment to the students. Also the student has to undergo a inplant training in the vacation and has to submit as a mini project. Also he has to complete a project work in his final year. Study tour is arranged for the students by clubbing the industrial visits.

* Research

Our college research cell has taken necessary steps by incorporating various research potential subjects in respective disciplines to develop research orientation among the students. Many staff and students proved their research capabilities by publishing papers in International / National journals, and they also participated in many International / National conferences. The present curriculum has given more scope to students to motivate towards the research.

Many of the faculties of the College are engaged in various research projects at personal level. Minor research projects are taken up by some faculties that are funded by the UGC. Three P.G departments have been converted into research centres. It is decided that these departments would initiate research programmes very soon with the help of reputed researchers.

The research students have regular interactions with the scientists and fellow researchers in the University departments to improve their quality in this field. Many departments have organized hands on trainings and workshops for the postgraduate students to have an exposure in the recent advancements and techniques in respective fields. We are very sure that these events definitely shape our students and staff members for their own research interests and initiatives.

1.1.5 How does College ensure that the curriculums developed address the needs of the society and have relevance to the regional / national developmental needs?

Every course in the regular disciplines are designed with the idea of contributing to nation-building and hence courses that are more relevant to the present need are chosen over and above older traditional ones. Care has been taken to address the needs of society also by the introduction of special courses such as Environmental Studies, Human Rights, women studies, yoga for human excellence and constitution of India. The UGC model curriculum is used as basis for the programmes.

The curriculum is developed keeping in mind the ‘needs’ that exist at the regional and national levels and human needs and social problems have a bearing on curriculum design. All the courses offered involve knowledge of computers and it is mandatory for students to be computer / techno savvy. The paradigm shift in the job market, namely the demand for hands in the Information Technology and Information Technology enabled service sectors calls for a restructured curriculum and the institution has complied with this demand.

Training in Tally 9.0 package for Commerce students, equips them to function as trained accountants. Computer Science students are given mini and major projects to prepare software using any of the programming languages. The UGC content and communication skills in English are incorporated in the curriculum design to meet the global demands in the field of higher education. Training in SPSS package for commerce and management students equips them to perform statistical analysis.

The students are encouraged to participate actively in campus cleaning and each department is assigned a space around their department to grow plants and keep their environment clean and green. The college provides opportunities to participate in NSS activities which encourage direct involvement of students in community and national development activities. The extension services like NSS, YRC and Red Ribbon club and Consumer club are very active in organizing programmes related to community development.

The interdisciplinary course on Environmental Studies is a good example of such work, where the values of environmental protection, the sociology of cultural practices and aspirations, the psychology of the individual and group and the politics of combined action, are as important as the biodiversity, the technology and the other scientific implications of the environment. This course has good impact on students and seeks to provoke students to act for environmental protection.

1.1.6 To what extent does the College use the guidelines of the regulatory bodies for developing or restructuring the curricula? Has the College been instrumental in leading any curricular reform which has created a national impact?

The syllabi of UGC and Bharathiar University syllabi are the starting points for the developing of the curricula. Also the norms of the TANSHE (Tamilnadu State Council for Higher Education) are incorporated. In addition, syllabi from various best foreign universities are also considered, in order to keep in line with international standards.

The teachers in the respective Boards of Studies play a vital role in updating syllabi and making them more relevant to the society and industry. The feedback is collected from faculty; students, alumnae and the employer communicate this information and feedback to the board members for appropriate inclusion and decision, through University representative and faculty members who are also subject experts from other colleges.

MoUs with various industries such as TCS, Infosys, Reliance Industries, UTL Technologies will be instrumental for the proposed B.Voc courses under the UGC Vocational education scheme. The introduction of elective subjects for MBA such as Disaster Management, Agricultural management and Remote infrastructure management will be an eye opener for the higher education in the nation.

1.2 Academic Flexibility

1.2.1 Give details on the following provisions with reference to academic flexibility

The College has opted for academic flexibility, in particular, giving choices to students, especially of an inter-disciplinary nature, given that most advances in science today happens on the interfaces of the disciplines.

a. Core / Elective options

i. Core

After obtaining academic autonomy the syllabus has been restructured twice. The new syllabus was implemented in 2013-14 and 2015-2016 respectively. The new curriculum is framed and Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) is introduced to ensure academic flexibility from 2013-14 onwards.

Every student in the UG programme completes minimum one core course in each semester and allied papers in first four semesters. The practical papers based on core papers are conducted in all semesters. The core is comprising of project work and an in plant training. There is no flexibility in core subjects since it is a hard core subject.

ii. Elective

Apart from core paper every student has to study electives, Skill based subjects, Languages, English and Allied papers. Along with these papers every student has common papers like Value Education – Human Rights and Environmental Studies in the first year. The institution is providing academic flexibility for students to choose one paper as inter-discipline in the U.G level in electives and NME (Non-Major Elective). Three elective papers are offered in the final year, one in V semester and two in VI semester. The student can choose his/her own elective from the group of elective. In addition the student can choose 2 non major elective subjects from the group of subjects in the third and fourth semester.

b. Enrichment courses

In tune with the emerging trends, most of the conventional programmes have been restyled and enriched by the college. The students are trained to use the internet to update themselves with the latest discoveries, inventions and concepts. Guest lectures by subject experts are arranged periodically. Computer awareness, ICT exposure, community orientation, Career development programmes are given frequently to students in addition to the curriculum. As an enrichment course the English Department is planning to ink an MOU with British Council of India to offer Business English Certificate Course. The Computer Science department signed an MOU with UTL technologies to conduct Networking course. The commerce department has signed an MOU with TCS and INFOSYS companies to teach Business Process Outsourcing course.

c. Courses offered in modular form

The courses offered by all Undergraduate and Postgraduate Departments are framed and structured in modules.

d. Credit transfer and accumulation facility

The college will allow students to get transfer from other institutions under same affiliating University or from other university with approval from the affiliating University. In this case, the credits obtained in the previous institution will be transferred to the students. If a student decided to quit the course and after a period of time he changed his/her mind and wish to continue the course, then the student is readmitted and the credit he scored already is accumulated and allowed to continue the course.

e. Lateral and vertical mobility within and across programmes and courses

As per the norms, students are not allowed to move from one specialization to the other. They are counselled and guided before they make a choice of their specialization in the first year. However, there is a provision of movement within a department (from one specialization to the other) on the basis of genuine reasons of interest, merit and vacancy.

If a student thinks that he/she lacks the basic ability to cope with the demands of a specialization or if the teachers through their interaction with the student find lack of specific skills and interest in a specific area of specialization, the student is counselled to change her specialization within the department.

1.2.2 Have any courses been developed specially targeting international students? If so, how successful have they been? If 'no', explain the impediments.

Degree and diploma courses offered by the College are available for both national & international students. The institution has taken many special strategies for involving international students and to cater them. Many students from Bhutan, Nepal and Nigeria are pursuing their courses in our institution. Our institution has the priority to provide quality education to the students hailing from across India and globe. An MOU with university of Nairobi and Wolver Hampton University is signed for the students and faculty exchange programmes.

A couple of courses will be designed for international students and will be implemented in the academic year 2016-17. It will be summer/winter course and will give undergraduate students from foreign Universities a wide exposure on the history, culture and contemporary social & political scenario in the Indian subcontinent from an urban perspective. The programme includes field exposure trips/workshops and lecture sessions on Indian History and Culture, Indian Society & Popular Culture, Government and Political System and the Indian Economy.

1.2.3 Does the College offer dual degree and twinning programmes? If yes, give details.

Since the institution adheres to the rules and regulations of the Bharathiar University, the institution does not offer dual degree. But, there is provision for students to complete an Add on Course simultaneously along with the degree. All the Departments offer Add on courses. The student can pursue their second degree or diploma programmes offered by the distance education of various universities. All help will be rendered by the college for the aspiring students.

1.2.4 Does the College offer self-financing programmes? If yes, list them and indicate if policies regarding admission, fee structure, teacher qualification and salary are at par with the aided programmes?

As the institution is a private un-aided Institution, all the programmes offered by it are self-financed programmes with due approval from the affiliating body.

The admission process for both UG and PG are done as per the norms of the UGC, AICTE, affiliating university and the Government of Tamilnadu. We are not getting any grant or aid from the State Government / University. In addition to the state government scholarships, the institution is offering merit scholarship to all the students based on the marks secured by them in qualifying examination. The courses prescribed in various parts of the curriculum are introduced in accordance with the requirements of the students and the availability of the infrastructures. The CBCS Pattern enables the students to enlighten themselves in different fields by choosing the options in the elective courses of their own interest.

1.2.6 What percentage of programmes offered by the College follows:

Annual system	Nil
Semester system	100
Trimester system	Nil

1.2.7 What is the policy of the College to promote inter-disciplinary programmes?
Name the programmes and what is the outcome?

The college promotes interdisciplinary programmes. Non-major Elective papers have been introduced at UG level to encourage interdisciplinary approach. Under autonomy, syllabus of every course is designed in such a way to gain knowledge in inter-disciplinary perspective during CBCS system. Students are encouraged to look at academics from the views of other disciplines. In addition, every student is expected to take at least one course from another faculty in order to gain a totally different perspective.

In the CBCS system, institution offers a wide scope to the students to take up interdisciplinary programmes and the idea behind this is to enable the students choose an area that is alien to their degree course. The Department of English conducts courses on Communicative English to all courses; it promotes employable and entrepreneurial skills.

The interdisciplinary course on Environmental Studies is a good example of such work, where the values of environmental protection, the sociology of cultural practices and aspirations, the psychology of the individual and group and the politics of combined action, are as important as the biodiversity, the technology and the other scientific implications of the environment. This course has good impact on students and seeks to encourage students to act for environmental protection.

We have planned to implement an Honours Certificate Programme in the College, in which two credits can be earned through a discipline than one's own.

Due to guidance and support given by the faculty in the college, it has been very satisfying to see the immense change in the interest, and attitude of these students from first year to third year with respect to their performance in their academics.

In general, some drop-outs are normally observed after the commencement of the classes. The Management and Staff take this as a challenge and make necessary arrangements to bring down the dropouts to the maximum extent. The dropout students are counselled and are convinced with the advantages of higher learning by quoting some examples of alumni who are at higher positions.

2.2.5 How does the institution identify and respond to the learning needs of advanced learners?

Besides scoring higher scores on tests, this advanced learner stands out in the classroom with their questioning skills; their quick grasp of the subject and above average quality of assignments, having such learners in the class definitely adds challenge and newness to teaching.

Advanced learners are identified through:

- Academic history

2.3 Teaching-Learning Process

2.3.1 How does the College plan and organize the teaching, learning and evaluation schedules? (Academic calendar, teaching plan and evaluation blue print, etc.)

- The academic year in the college is comprised of two semesters: the first semester from June to October and the second semester from November to April. The number of actual working days is as per calendar in an academic year, at 5 hours per day comprising a minimum of 90 days per semester.
- Academic calendar of institution is prepared during the summer vacation itself so that it is available at the beginning of every academic year.
- The Calendar displays dates of all academic events like:
  - College reopening after every vacation,
  - Examinations,
  - Annual results,
  - Admissions,
  - Conferences, Workshops and Seminar details,
  - Duration of first / second term,
  - Extracurricular events-like Club activities of all departments, Annual and social days, Sports days and also number of teaching days and holidays.
- Keeping in mind the academic calendar, each teacher prepares a “tentative teaching plan” which gives the details of the topics to be covered, the number of classes to be devoted to each subtopic, teaching methodologies to be used, the dates of the two unit tests, etc. This tentative teaching plan is prepared before the beginning of the term and the teacher tries to keep up to the teaching plan schedule.
- All academic activities are organized and completed as per the schedule by the teachers under the guidance of Heads of the Departments.

- In the beginning of academic year, Head of the Department conducts departmental meeting for the distribution of work and time table is made available to them in time to carry out their academic work.
- Board of Studies prescribes detailed syllabus for a subject based on provisions of regulations and it also decides pattern of the question paper and evaluation.
- Examinations are conducted by Controller of Examinations of our institution and it decides on the evaluation schedule.
- Examination time-table is displayed on student notice boards well in advance.
- Answer papers are evaluated by external examiners.
- Results are published in time after passing them in examination board meeting, attended by all the Heads of the departments.
- The academic calendar comprises work schedule, course-wise elective and optional subjects, working days, dates of internal tests and model examinations.

2.3.2 Does the College provide course outlines and course schedules prior to the commencement of the academic session? If yes, how is the effectiveness of the process ensured?

All the students who are admitted in our College are given a copy of the syllabus of the different courses that are being offered to them. For each subject being taught, the objectives, the detailed content, the number of lectures allotted to the units and the evaluation pattern of that particular subject is outlined in detail. The same information also kept in the college website. The student can login to his moodle login to know about the papers offered, syllabus, tests, assignment, seminar and class notes etc. Each student has to register for a moodle login by registering himself with his email id. The admin will authorize the student to access the contents. It's a novel idea to have e-learning exercises.

Based on the planning of Annual calendar and Board of Studies, Teaching, Learning and Evaluation processes are implemented. The higher percentage of pass indicates the effectiveness of the process.

2.3.3 What are the courses, which predominantly follow the lecture method? Apart from classroom interactions, what are the other methods of learning experiences provided to students?

The Principal method of teaching is the “lecture method”, where students and teachers directly interact with each other. Topics that are difficult for understanding are repeated and the teacher clears doubts immediately.

Most of our theory lessons are assisted by practical sessions, which are based on the theory, where the students get an opportunity to discuss their difficulties in the subject, directly with the concerned teacher. Models, charts, and specimens are used to supplement the lecture method.

Our College has always encouraged the teaching faculty to use modern teaching aids to enhance the learning experiences of the students. This not only enriches the teaching-learning but also motivates the students to use power point presentations and videos in their own individual or group presentation. Other interesting and innovative methods like role-plays, class discussions, sensitization games, case study presentation are ways in which the teaching- learning takes place in our classroom. Institution has provided computer with free Internet connections to all departments. Teachers use this facility for updating their knowledge.

In addition to these, teacher suggests certain topics to the students for seminars where students are asked to read and collect the relevant material, and present orally in the class room. Seminar is followed by discussion related to the topic. This helps in developing confidence amongst the students and also their communication skill.

For all courses, project work is a compulsory component in the syllabus. Through executing their projects, students are motivated to read reference books from library for getting additional information. Viva-voce forms a major component of project evaluation.

Teachers also invite guest lecturers from the industry annexed in the college or various organizations to give lectures or have workshops for the students in every subject that they are teaching. This is planned so that the learning of the students in the classroom is being supplemented with the current updates in the working environments.

Students' participation in the outreach activities is intentionally encouraged since such participation facilitates the learning of fundamental societal tenets and concerns.

The overall effect of all these teaching-learning strategies has resulted in a remarkable quantitative and qualitative growth in the academic performance of the college in the last five years.

Self-learning through individual and group presentations, field studies, Surveys, Case studies, making documentary films are encouraged.

NPTEL videos, tutorial videos are shown to students to add value to the lecture method, the students are motivated to participate and learn online courses to enrich themselves. The college is planning to implement hybrid learning techniques in all levels.

2.3.4 How 'learning' is made more student-centric? Give a list of participatory learning activities adopted by the faculty that contribute to holistic development and improved student learning, besides facilitating life-long learning and knowledge management.

The learning is made student-centric by adopting variations in teaching methods to suit the learning ability of the students. In classes where the strength is more, the lectures are delivered with the aim that average student will be able to assimilate the concept. It is always seen by the faculty that the lecturing method suits to the level of understanding of the student. On demand, teachers conduct revision lectures for slow learners.

- Besides regular teacher-centric learning, participatory learning is also encouraged by giving student assignments, seminar presentations, project works by referring to bibliography, collection of information from the internet.

- Innovative ICT based teaching/learning methods like use of LCD, CDs and DVDs are used by teachers to make the subject more interesting. We also plan activities to mould our students so that they can face this competitive world boldly.
- Yearly Conferences / Seminars/Workshops are arranged for students.

Accordingly the students are advised and improved by way of help and remedial / corrective action.
- The College is also committed to “blended learning”, which complements class work with online resources and interaction. The College uses Moodle for this, besides internet groups on Google and even Facebook.
- Participatory Learner Centred pedagogy like Project Work, Field trips, seminars, Quizzes, contribution in College Magazine, Assignments, Computer and Web based learning etc. are the other teaching methodology other than lecture method.

High score in the semester examinations, University ranks and grand success in career placement in firms and corporates of repute enable the faculty to assess the learning outcome of the students.
- Learning outcomes and student's performance in any course are deeply rooted in the learning objectives for the course.
- The course work of each programme starts with clearly defined objectives. Each subject has clearly stated objectives which are written along with the subject details in the syllabus copy.
- Whenever a new faculty is appointed to teach in the College, they are oriented to the subjects that she has to teach and is encouraged to study the syllabus book.
- The students are made aware of the learning outcomes mainly in two ways.
  - The syllabus book is also given to each student upon admission to the college.
  - Even at the time of the departmental orientation, they are given an insight to the course objectives.
- The extracurricular activities like NSS, YRC, Sports activities contribute to the overall development of the student.
- Tutors and the faculty of the respective department give detailed scope and employment opportunities for the programmes offered and guide the students to select appropriate career avenues.

2.6.2 How does the institution monitor and ensure the achievement of learning outcomes?

- The teacher prepares a tentative teaching plan keeping in with the learning outcomes. This plan is reviewed by the Head of Department and the Principal of the college.
- The pattern of formative evaluation or the "internal assessment" which is followed by the College has facilitated to focus on the "process of learning" of the students.
- As the objective of our internal assessment or formative evaluation is to foster development and improvement within the learner , after the formative assessment is done, the instructor provides a feedback to the students to help them understand the level at which they are functioning.
- The Institute continuously monitors on compulsory attendance, tutorial, written/oral tests, assignments.
- Placement ensures the achievement of the learning outcome.

2.6.3 How does the institution collect and analyse data on student learning outcomes and use it for overcoming barriers of learning?

Every department of the college reviews the result and analyzes the reasons for the cause of increase in fail percentage, if any. The department faculty is invited to discuss the results. In this open discussion, suggestions are made and the teacher's opinions sought on the reasons for poor performance/skewed graphs. Such analysis of performance can result in spotting a trend and help address the issue before it becomes a problem.

Through continuous evaluation system by way of cycle tests, written/oral assignment and model examination, the departments identify the performance of students individually. Alumni, when they visit their parent departments furnish the details about their career and the prospects of the selected academic stream in the employment market. Their suggestions are kept in mind when improving the curriculum to suit the ever changing job market.

The students' feedback and faculty discussion helps to reveal the necessary steps to be undertaken to overcome the shortfalls or barriers in learning.

CRITERIA VII: INNOVATION AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 Environment Consciousness

7.1.1 Does the College conduct a Green Audit of its campus?

The campus has a sprawling 52.62 acre area situated in a bustling residential area and provides a rich haven of flora and fauna. Many species of plants add beauty to this college. Green audit of the campus is carried out by the staff periodically by supervising the maintenance of the existing trees and locating places for planting new trees. Nurturing Plants is one of the non-academic pursuits that develop eco- concern among the students. The staff and students have planted more than 1000 tree saplings during world environment day to maintain the pristine purity and beauty of the college to provide a congenial atmosphere for the various academic pursuits.

Areas are assigned to NSS, YRC, RRC and the departments for planting, watering, weeding and maintaining the plants. The yearly addition of trees to the green campus is the joint venture of these organizations. Personal experience of sowing seeds, watering plants, preparing and using organic manure, removing weeds etc., has ecologically sensitized the students.

The government itself advises to avoid plastic materials to become eco conscious. Hence thrust is given on plastic free zone on the campus. The student volunteers are extensively used to campaign against the plastic things such as plastic bags, plastic cups sensitizing the dangers of plastic materials. The campus has planned to convert into solar energy by installing solar units in Hostel, campus lightings and administrative blocks.

7.1.2 What are the initiatives taken by the College to make the campus eco-friendly?

* Energy conservation

- Strict measures in using the electricity and encouraging saving the current attitudes among staff and students.

- The college maintained power rooms with control panels and breakers for each department.
- Panels, distribution boxes and breakers are available in each department.
- Adoption of electronic chokes and CFL Bulbs on campus
- Minimal installation and usage of air conditioning units on campus
- Underground cables are laid to minimize the power losses.
- A new cooking system for the boarders of the campus has been installed which includes the use of modern cooking gas-oven etc. instead of coal.
- We have also installed a cooking boiler to speed up the cooking process which helps in the conservation of energy.

* Use of renewable energy

- Planned to install solar units inside the campus
- Educating the students and reinforcing the need to save energy.
- Students were taught the dangers of natural resource depletion and the need for energy conservation.
- The dry leaves and the waste papers are not burnt but they are buried in the soil itself and used as organic manure.
- 2/3 of water from RO Plants is treated and used for plants and trees in the college.
- LCD monitor is used instead of CRT monitor
- Waste from Costume Design & Fashion like waste clothes can be used for stuffing, and can be used for accessories for children.

* Water harvesting

- To minimize water shortage and to maximize available water usage, an elaborate Rainwater Harvesting System has been set up in various places inside the campus

* Plantation

- Planting saplings for Guinness Record: Green Kalam organized a programme of “Planting 1 lakh”. One hundred NSS volunteers from our units planted 1000 saplings. The programme was inaugurated by Actor Vivek in the campus.

* Check dam construction

- The campus is located in a natural sand dune. The buildings are constructed in the elevated lands while the lower parts are located in the front part of the campus facing the sea which has sandy drenches and rainwater accumulated in the monsoon percolates into the land, thus restoring the ground water table.
- Since the college is situated on plains and is not over flooded so far, hence, the need for check dam construction has not risen.

* Hazardous waste management

- There is no hazardous waste generated inside the campus.
- Effective house-keeping system is practiced where waste management is effectively taken care.

* E-waste management

- Strict procedures are followed where the e-waste management is taken care by the management and housekeeping systems
- Electronic goods are put to optimum use; the repairs are set right by the College; and are reused.
- The damaged computers are used in the practical sessions of the Computer Maintenance and Hardware.
- UPS Batteries are recharged / repaired / exchanged at prompt times.
- The waste compact discs are used by students for decoration and participation in competitions.

* Efforts for Carbon neutrality

- Proper measures have been taken to reduce carbon emission to keep the campus, pollution-free and uncontaminated.
- Students and Staff have separate parking sheds and movement by vehicle inside the campus is restricted.
- The College cabs fetch students and staff to the college and avoid their use of individual vehicles.
- The College buses and other vehicles are checked by the RTO and provided with (CNG) pollution-free stickers.
- Various plants inside the campus help to maintain carbon neutrality inside the campus.
- Use of disposable plastic tumblers in the canteen and departments is strongly discouraged and use of paper plates and paper cups is encouraged.

* Any other

Nature Club: One of the other activities to create eco-friendly attitudes has been the activities of the Nature Club of our College. It has organised various visits / treks/ star gazing programmes.

7.3 Best Practices

7.3.1 Give details of any two best practices which have contributed to better academic and administrative functioning of the College.

1. Title of the Practice

Faculty training in industries during the semester holidays

2. Goal

To train the faculties who can impart the modern Industry trends among the students in the class room teaching

3. The Context

We always get to hear that students are not industry-ready. The management and the faculty deliberated on this issue and came up with this idea. Only with industry exposure, faculty felt that subjects can be handled in a better way. Hence, the college faculties of this college were sent to their subject oriented industries during their semester vacations. The major hindrance faced was first the industry was not ready to welcome the academic fraternity inside the industry to learn the new trends as this is a new concept to them that teachers are getting internships rather than students. And slowly they were made to understand the concept behind these trainings and the staff was trained in various industries like media houses, IT companies, Business firms etc.

4. The Practice

All the faculties of Rathinam College selected appropriate companies that suit their subject major and they went for 15 day training during May 2012.

5. Evidence of Success [Copy of the “The Hindu” article which reflects the success of this innovation]

<http://www.thehindu.com/todays-paper/tp-national/tp-TamilNadu/here-industryreadiness-begins-from-the-faculty/article3517832.ece?textsize=large&test=1>

Here industry-readiness begins from the faculty

Is it enough for only students to visit the industry during the course of study to become industry-ready? With a strong belief that this is not the right beginning, Rathinam College of Arts and Science has used the summer holidays to send the faculty to the industry for an orientation, ahead of the students. Higher education institutions are focusing keenly on not only providing quality education for their students, but also making them industry-ready to enable them to fetch good jobs. After finishing each and every campus recruitment college managements get feedback about the performance of the students and also the expectations of the industry. Based on this, they devise a plan of action to help students acquire the required skill sets to face campus interviews confidently. And, the decision to equip teachers first was the plan of action that Rathinam College wanted to try out on an experimental basis, says its principal. "We always get to hear that students are not industry-ready. The management and the faculty deliberated on this issue and came up with this idea. Only with industry exposure, faculty felt that subjects can be handled in a better way. Hence, teacher representatives were sent to the industry". Having just come back after a week-long exposure, the faculty says that it has done them good. It has helped them learn in the practical way. They are confident that their teaching will definitely be on a different plane in the coming academic year. T.M. Hemalatha, Head, Department of Management, who handles a paper on marketing and sales promotion chose to study marketing in an apparel company.

Faculty members in the department of Costume Design and Fashion chose to focus on finishes on garments. They spent six days on the shop floor of a garment factory in Tirupur, learning the same.

Faculty from computer technology, computer science, information technology, and computer applications, chose to get oriented in software development, animation and web development, client-server installation, etc.

The faculty of Visual Communication department opted to go to a print media house. They got oriented on the editorial aspects, circulation, advertising, and printing technology. They also saw the printing of the newspaper.

Best Practice: 2

Best Practice by Rathinam College of Arts and Science

1. Title of the Practice

Constructed permanent divider near the college.

2. Goal

1. Free and easy flow of traffic
2. Controlling two-way traffic and helping it move in an organized manner.
3. To make the stretch as an accident free zone.

3. The Context

The Coimbatore - Pollachi Road has become an accident-prone spot. There is a major accident at least on every alternate day. This particular stretch accounts for a larger number of accidents reported in the district.

The 8 km Pollachi highway stretch, spanning the southern edge of Coimbatore city, has maimed 38 two-wheeler riders and claimed the lives of four people in just four months this year.

Dotted with seven colleges, the National Highways 209 linking the city to Mysore is increasingly turning into a nightmare for motorists. With the National Highways department delaying a five year proposal to widen and four-lane the Pollachi road, which still lacks a central median, there has been a spurt in the number of accidents. The number of vehicles passing through the stretch has also soared to 19,500 over the last two years.

Motorists using the Pollachi road regularly are in constant fear of accidents. "Private bus drivers and two wheeler riders drive in a rash manner. This is the main reason for accidents.

Many time when persons attempted to cross the Pollachi Main Road near the K.P.M. Matriculation School they met with an accident. Persons who ride the motorcycle or riding pillion either lost their life or escape or sustain with injuries. The accidents occur on the stretch of the State Highways regularly. Notably we lost our own college student Kennant Antony and his brother in an accident on the stretch was an example of frequent mishaps including fatal ones take place on this stretch.

The over speeding of vehicles and absence of dividers and speed breakers were the contributing factors for the increase in accidents.

The road-over bridge across the railway crossing had been thrown open, vehicles moving from north to south towards the Eachanari temple zip past by at great speed. In the opposite direction it was no better, either.

The college authorities, Office-bearers of Muthuvinayagar Kovil Matrum Kudiyruppor Sangam and several other outfits working on traffic awareness had also raised the issue with the authorities concerned and had demanded construction of a divider, and as a solution barricades were placed as speed breakers.

But that did not serve the purpose as the vehicles continued to move at great speeds, sometimes knocking down the metal barricades in the process.

Again the college authorities and the residents moved the Coimbatore City Traffic Police for a solution. The officials said: “The area near the college is always clogged with traffic. Moreover, there is a Railway flyover towards the college. Motorists generally drive on high speed. There are makeshift barricades tied with ropes to disallow motorists to cross over haphazardly. We would be constructing permanent speed breakers till the KPM school gate on the road. Once that is done, the motorists would not be able to cross over. We think the move will ensure safety.”

4. The Practice

The decision to construct a permanent divider near our college has drawn flak and no stone unturned.

Then our college management decided to erect permanent concrete road divider on the road in front of the college and started Constructing Centre Divider in NH 209 from Eachanari Road over Bridge (ROB) to KPM matriculation Higher Secondary School gate by its own financial resources after obtaining proper permission from government authorities. Commuters, especially those riding a bike or other two-wheelers can look forward for a safe ride on the Road.

The Chairman of Rathinam group, Dr.Madan.A.Senthil, told that the college management decided to erect the road divider / centre median following persistent loss of life and sustenance with injuries of commuters, as a means of finding a lasting solution to the problems they faced.He said after waiting for a very long time without support from the government, we decided to take the road project through our own financial resources.

Now the vehicles moving through the stretch continued to move slowly and they moved on to the left of the road.

Regular commuters welcomed the initiative. "The construction of a divider will prove boon for commuters especially two-wheeler riders who often fall victim of road mishaps", said Nareshkumara resident of Eachanariwho commutes through that road daily to reach his office in Coimbatore.

After studying the situation, city police welcomed the initiatives of the management and they posted a traffic constable to regulate traffic during peak hours.

The divider project is the latest effort in the college's Initiative, which works with community partners to promote safety and security of the commuters.

5. Evidence of Success

"The road is very narrow. But accident rates have come down drastically after installing centre medians on the Coimbatore-Pollachiroad," said, deputy commissioner of police (traffic), Coimbatore city.As per the traffic investigation wing's (TIW) report, no fatal accidents were reported on the Eachanari stretch after the installation of dividers.

Faculties are encouraged to produce quality research papers in National/International journals of repute to enhance the impact factors.

Academically, the most challenging task that the College took up was to break free from the mould of rote learning that Indian institutions have a dubious reputation for, and to encourage the higher order skills of critical thinking, application and creative problem-solving. The College decided on the structured use of the Blooms Taxonomy, with many checks and balances, and with the objectives of the teaching-learning-evaluation process clear to both students and faculty through grids for question paper setting and for presentations and assignments of students. This effort has been worthwhile in stimulating critical reflection on the context, content, reflection and action that the academic process should lead to. Beginnings are normative and so at the start of this process of building our Autonomous system, the College realised the importance of structuring crucial elements into the system.
